Possible Topics for Discussion

Estimates: My colleagues are as interested as we are in building p estimative talent and orienting analysts to consider more than ingle-outcome forecasts. They will probably raise this topic with you and discuss what their agencies are doing about it. You might wish to ote briefly some of the findings of the recent SRP study of intelligence udgments. Off-site IC meeting: Favorable reports of your meeting with senior officials of the intelligence community have led some of y counterparts to propose similar meetings at the NiO and Office irector level. With careful planning of both the agenda and the list of articipantsand possibly with your opening remarks to set the
